

Without

Bill Anderson & Mary Lou Turner

(Bill)

Well baby, now that you've got your freedom.

How you're doin'? (Without.)(Mary Lou)

And honey, I'm a subject you've got your freedom too.

How you're doin'? (Without.)(Bill)

Without your arms around me the world's a lonely place(Mary Lou)

Please don't look too close when you're look into my face.

So you see that I've been crying

(And crying ain't what freedom's all about.)(Both)

I wanna do my thing with you and if I can't do it with you

I'll do without

(Bill)

You know the last time I saw you

Was that time when you came in and said

That you didn't want to live with me anymore(Mary Lou)

Yeah, I thought we'd both be better off

If we'd just untie the knot and losin' the chain

But honey, I was in your arms five minutes

Before I knew I made a big mistake.(Bill)

And you just don't know how many nights

I've layed awake in a big cold bed

And called your name

And I just wonder now

If all the men in town are cravin' your body?

Honey, what you're doin'. (Without.)

(Mary Lou)

And if all the girls are chasin' you

What have you been doin'? (Without.)

Without your arms around me the world's a lonely place

I wanna do my thing with you and if I can't do with you

I'll do without...

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>