

Villainy Thrives

Trivium

I can feel it aching within every bone inside of me
I can feel it breaking a retaliation release
I need to cause the evil doer suffering
Cant wait to choke the life out from your ?? Bodies If only I could afflict you
Hurt you in the same way that you hurt
I just want to exact reprisal
Retribution calls The only way I depict you
Is that your attentions undeserved
Meet the vessel of your reprisal
Retribution calls Its not that I take life for granted
Its only that the good wont make it
Innocence dies while Villiany Thrives How can you harm a living thing thinking that its your right
Having you devitalized to prior of innocence
For too long youve gotten away with murder
A fitting justice would be your painful execution If only I could afflict you
Hurt you in the same way that you hurt
I just want to exact reprisal
Retribution calls The only way I depict you
Is that your attentions undeserved
Meet the vessel of your reprisal
Retribution calls Its not that I take life for granted
Its only that the good wont make it
Innocence dies while Villiany Thrives I want to ruin the rapist
Punish the criminal
Violate the abuser
End the murderer Its not that I take life for granted
Its only that the good wont make it
Innocence dies while Villiany Thrives Its not that I take life for granted
Its only that the good wont make it
Innocence dies while Villiany Thrives
