Who Says

Device

The night is warm and my body wrecked
and the hair stands up on the back of my neck Oh yeah it's in my hand and we shouldn't stop but before I took the last shot something in my head went "no!"

It doesn't matter what you say
How can you hope to hide away
When we're looking for the same thing?

Who, who, who says it's not that easy
to walk away from you?
Who, who, who says it's not that easy
to walk away from you?

And if we take this temporary tumble in the dark don't reach for the Hammer, don't hit me in the heart Breathe deep like a beast when you're rockin' my device Set it loose like an animal just another sacrifice

Then you ran wild through the streets with your wheels on fire and the last thing you needed was to see me turn around and say, "no!"

It doesn't matter what you say
How can you hope to hide away
When we're looking
for the same thing?

Who, who, who says it's not that easy

to walk away from you?
Who, who, who says it's not that easy
to walk away from you?
(watch me walk...)

It doesn't matter what you say
How can you hope to hide away
When we're looking
for the same thing?

Who, who, who says it's not that easy
to walk away from you?
Who, who, who says it's not that easy
to walk away from you?
