

Older

Mattafix

All i wanted was to Live without the Middleman
All you needed was aChance to say," i told you so"
When youre cold and
Battered all you want
Is to know you matter
To someoneI had to throw away all
The plans we made and
Now these days
With marks against my Shoulders i feel like
Im Older than i amAll i want right now
Is to be my own child.
Do you think it makes
Me a better man just Mo know i can be
Alone a while?I had to throw away
All the plans we made
And now these days
With marks against my shoulders i feel like
Im Older than i am
