

No One Is Lost

Stars

Another night, another weekend
Another lonely roller looking for a friend
A bright eye kid, an empty vessel
This party's crazy but he knows it's gonna end
Look at your face, look in the mirror
You see your eye line when you close your eyes
Look at the lights, look at the city Who's gonna be here when everybody dies
Put your hands up 'cause everybody dies
Put your hands up 'cause everybody dies
Put your hands up 'cause everybody dies Until then, nothing else
Put your hands up 'cause everybody dies
No one is lost
No one is lost
Put your hands up 'cause everybody dies
Until then, nothing else
Put your hands up, put your hands up
No one is lost Another night, another weekend
Another message checker looking for a friend
You got a pulse, you got a problem
We know the real you so why do you pretend?
The velvet rope, the soft eyed bouncer
The girls that shiver in their high heel shoes
The ones inside all feel like winners Put your hands up if you know you're gonna lose
Put your hands up if you know you're gonna lose
Put your hands up if you know you're gonna lose
Until then, nothing else
Put your hands up if you know you're going to lose No one is lost
No one is lost
Put your hands up if you know you're gonna win
Until then, nothing else
Put your hands up if you know you're gonna win No one is lost
No one is lost
No one is lost
Back to the crib, back to the castle
The bottle's empty and my bed's unmade
You have the lips, you have the lover
You're being brave but we know that you're afraid Put your hands up if you ever feel afraid
Put your hands up if you ever feel afraid
Put your hands up, put your hands up

Put your hands up if you ever feel afraid, yeah
Until then, nothing else
Put your hands up if you ever feel afraid
No one is lost
Put your hands up, put your hands up
Put your hands up if you ever feel afraid Until then, nothing else
No one is lost
No one is lost
No one is lost
No one is lost
