

Gasoline

Fly Away Hero

No matter how I try this plate glass window just won't break and I've tried the roof but it just won't support my weight you broke my heart you broke my mind my self esteem and now I'm lighting matches and swallowing a bottle of gasoline

Gasoline
Gasoline
I let you out of that methamphetamine
Gasoline

Up on the wall I spelled your boyfriend's name in blood, then screamed aloud, "I fucked you like he never could."
I take the knife out from his chest and wiped it clean and then I soaked his body head to toe in gasoline

Gasoline
Gasoline
I let you out of that methamphetamine
Gasoline

I know my time is coming
I know my time is coming
You and your bitch are running
I know my time is coming

You're gonna feel the bl bl bl blast

Gasoline
Gasoline
You ain't going fresh or going green
Gasoline

Gasoline
Gasoline
I let you out of that methamphetamine
Gasoline
