I Fall In Love

Thirsty Merc

I fall in love
Too young, Too often

And the curtains and the doors
(have-a-view refracting the light)?
(have you refracting the light)?

I see the signs
But never, See it coming

So the moment I'm in deep
The ice slick walls are much too steep
And i know, I'm casting
A shadow on true love
But ever lasting emotion is my dove

Theres no reason too give in
Cause you'll only bring me down
Sitting lonely in my world
I should be stronger than this pain I've found
Till every time
I fall in love

I fall in love
And fall so quickly
And I never comprehend
Is my madness a meens to an end
And now the signs they point in all directions
To many ways to turn
What outstretched bridge to burn

And I know Im painting the lonely side (alone)?
But while Im waiting
I cant help thinking so

Theres no reason to give in
Cause youll only bring me down
Sitting lonely in my world

I should be stronger now

You will only complicate
And I fear by then it is too late
It is too late
I've fallen in love

Theres no reason to give in
Cause you'll only bring me down
Sitting lonely in my world
I should be stronger now

You will only complicate
And I fear by then it is too late
It is too late
I've fallen in love-ove-ove-ove-ove-ove-ove-eahhhhhhhhh

I fall in love
I fall in love
I fall in love yeah-eahhhhhh
