I'll Wait For You

Stanfour

(Laura Branigan/Kevin Wells)
Time, time gets the best of me
Moving on endlessly, when we're apart
Faith, faith is the strength I need
Faith is the inner key, the key to the heart
Just a face in the crowd
Is all that it takes for the memory
Of that pale cool night, with you by my side
When all that I wanted was you
Wherever we run, whatever we choose
Whether we win or if we lose
Until the sun no longer shines
I'll wait for you
Wherever we run, whatever we choose
Whether or not our dreams come true
Until we reach the end of time
I'll wait for you
You, you are my fantasy
You are my destiny like the sea to the shore
Faith, faith is the strength I need
Faith is the inner key, the key to the heart

Just a face in the crowd
Is all that it takes for the memory
Of that pale cool night, with you by my side
When all that I wanted was you
Wherever we run, whatever we choose
Whether we win or if we lose
Until the sun no longer shines
I'll wait for you
Wherever we run, whatever we choose
Whether or not our dreams come true
Until we reach the end of time
I'll wait for you
I, I close my eyes and see
Your body next to me your lips on mine
Wherever we run, whatever we choose
Whether we win or if we lose
Until the sun no longer shines

I'll wait for you
