

Love Again

Ximena Sarinana

Pick a number
Take a name
Falling on the roses
Falling on the roses
Start a fire
Burn it up
Falling on the roses
Falling on the roses
Is this love love love love love, love again
And will it be enough to keep me from running away again
Is this love love love love love, love again
Oh will it be enough
I wanna be in love again
Make it easy
Break apart
Falling on the roses
Falling on the roses
I'll be over you
Before it ends
Falling on the roses

Falling on the roses
Is this love love love love love, love again
And will it be enough to keep me from running away again
Is this love love love love love, love again
Oh will it be enough
I wanna be in love again
It's hard to be alone
The tides have come
With wasted words
And things I've always known
They don't mean shit without your love
Love love love love, love again
And will it be enough to keep me from running away again
Is this love love love love love, love again
Oh will it be enough
I wanna be in love again
Is this love love love love love, love again
And will it be enough to keep me from running away again

Is this love love love love love, love again

Oh will it be enough

I wanna be in love again
