Why sizzles it all on me in?Why trettet their me, if I want to be because of the soil?
And does look for you nen other body leaves me finally freely sets me for the worms forwards fertilizes with me does the country which disappear wants it still from me!?
I want no longer further, because I white not where which makes it with me, what happens?
I can no longer further, and I white where am not to lead still all this why trick I me in the circle?
I want no longer further, because I white not where which want it from me, what want you!?
Leave me nevertheless finally in rests, leave me nevertheless finally alone hears nevertheless finally on to cry as high is your price?
I want to be nevertheless only finite simply die, completely alone why sizzle their further on me in?

Leave me nevertheless finally in rests alone to hang unknotted and garniert for the raben where is your joy, if I am not any more?
Let me go, look for you another toy which want you still from me!?
I want no longer further, because I white not where which makes it with me, what happens?
