

Withered Delilah

Slash

You are the clown for what you are
You had to break out every trick you could pull
But there comes a time when everything must turn off
Back to the start again
Back to the place where you come from
Stuck out of view

My withered Delilah

You know it's true that no one cares anymore
Stuck out of view

You had your time, but now your moment is all but gone
Oh it's gone
Lost in a daze, what have you done?

Diggin' a grave to be your own

You're soon to fade, but just too blind to let go

Of what you had, and what you were

Irrelevance hurts but you're not alone
Stuck out of view

My withered Delilah

You know it's true that no one cares anymore
Stuck out of view

You had your time, but now your moment is all but gone
So pack your diamond rings

All your pretty things and just move along

'Cause there's always somebody else to replace you

When you are gone
(When you are gone, hey yeah)
Stuck out of view

My withered Delilah

You know it's true that no one cares anymore
Stuck out of view

You had your time, but now your moment is all but gone
Stuck out of view

My withered Delilah

You know it's true that no one cares anymore
Stuck out of view

You had your time, but now the moment is all but gone
The moment is all but gone

The moment is all but gone

Oh it's gone

Songwriters

MYLES KENNEDY, SAUL HUDSON
Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., Kobalt Music Publishing Ltd. Song Discussions is protected by U.S.

Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>