

Pyramid of Cheops

Yngwie Malmsteen

For eons, they reigned
With blood, with pain
Our souls devoured
In a temple of powerStone by stone, life by life, sacrifice
With the whips and the chains they will build
No matter what, pay the price
With our flesh and bloodSoon reaching the sky
But many must die
This temple will bring
Eternal life for the kingStone by stone, life by life, sacrifice
With the whips and the chains they will build
No matter what, pay the price
With our flesh and bloodStone by stone, life by life, sacrifice
With the whips and the chains they will build
No matter what, pay the price
With our flesh and blood
