

Never Too Late

Lynyrd Skynyrd

In this world that we all live in
Its all takin' and there's no givin'
Before its too late, something's gotta change
Go to work every day for the dollar
Doesn't matter we're all blue collar
At the end of the day
Nothin' lost, nothin' gained
But its about time we realized
Its about time we opened our eyes
Take one step back and look at yourself
Do you like what you see
Oh no
Cause its never too late
Doesn't matter who you are
Its never too late
Hold on to your dreams and they will take you far
Cause its never too late
No, no, no
So many times I've seen you cryin'
But I see you out there still tryin'
Workin' hard just to get through another day
As a friend I'm here to remind you
We all have a place to belong to
Who am I? See I'm just like you
But its about time we realized
Its about time we opened our eyes
Take one step back and look at yourself
Do you like what you see
Oh no
Cause its never too late
Doesn't matter who you are
Its never too late
Hold on to your dreams and they will take you far
Cause its never too late
We all need a helpin' hand sometimes
And I need one if you were mine
So right here, right now
You can count on me
Just open your eyes and you will see
That its never too late
No, no, no
Cause its never too late, it doesn't matter who you are

Its never too late
Hold on to your dreams and they will take you far
Cause its never too late
Cause its never too late, it doesn't matter who you are
Its never too late
You don't need a guitar son to be a star
No, no, no
No
Take a look around
