I'm Sorry

Ameer Vann

[verse one:]
all my life i broke everything i touched like my d*mn phone screen so i donâ€™t hear it when it rings i wouldnâ€™t answer anyway iâ€™m afraid of conversation they only lead to temptation so i always spend the night and iâ€™m gone in the morning and then those tears in your eyes turn to voice mail recordings and i dont never play them back i just act like i ainâ€™t get it and i act like nothing happened then i text some other b*tches and i know iâ€™m not supposed to say that you know my momma taught me better i wish i had it all together but iâ€™m tearing at the seams iâ€™m cold in west coast weather you say i never make sense when my dollar signs coming and you still down for the ride even if i make nothing well ainâ€™t that something ainâ€™t you sweet as honey bees i just wish i wasnâ€™t broken [verse two:] and all those miles on your car i wish that i could give them back i wish you never picked me up i wish i never smiled back and i wish i said nothing when you told me that you loved me and all those f*cking love songs i wish i never wrote them but really most of all i wish i wasnâ€™t lying and i wish i had the time to tell you what i mean iâ€™m always showing up late like our very first date i ran away to hollywood and said iâ€™ll see you someday

Lyrics Submitted by hanna g

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/