

Love Comes A-Tumblin'™ Down

Cheap Trick

Tell you a story not a little white lie
Wasn't long tall Sally, it was no surprise
That's right, tell me that's right A tough act to follow, not too good in your shoes
A whole lotta shakin' was terrible news
That night, tell me that's right The band was singin and playin' a tune
Love comes a-tumblin' down
Oh, yeah, yeah All shook up and bent out of shape
Wasn't Johnny B. Goode but it sounded great
That night, tell me that's right From the cabaret to the highway of hell
Had a monkey on his back, it was easy to tell
That's right, tell me that's right The band was singin' and playin' a tune
Love comes a-tumblin' down
Oh, yeah, yeah The band was singin' and playin' a tune
Love comes a-tumblin' down
Oh, yeah I'm wishing to live longer
Aided by the supreme healing force of music
It most definitely overcomes
All weakening aspects of the body I've felt quite lost and distraught
Without those wonderful vinyl productions
I'm convinced it's an addiction, too
I feel just great again, band, get ready When you see the train come, then you'll know what to do
A tough act to follow not too good in your shoes
That's right, tell me that's right Love came a-stumblin' and a-tumblin' down
Not a pretty picture when the body was found
That night, oh, that's right The band was singin' and playin' a tune
(Love comes a-tumblin')
A tough act to follow, not too good in your shoes
(Love comes a-tumblin') You see the train come, you know what to do
(Love comes a-tumblin')
Johnny B. Goode, it sounded just great
(Love comes a-tumblin') Long, tall, Sally, it was no surprise
(Love comes a-tumblin')
A whole lotta shakin' was terrible news
(Love comes a-tumblin') Not a pretty picture when the body was found
(Love comes a tumblin') Mama
Mama
Mama
