Exotic Animal Petting Zoo

There goes the world (Itâ€™s spinning) There goes the world (Itâ€™s spinning)
There goes the world (Itâ€™s spinning) There goes the world (Itâ€™s spinning)

Because itâ€™s all your fault, the world has failed you there's certain reasons why.
Because itâ€™s all your fault, your friends have left you these certain reasons why.

You take the time, assume all the stupid shit you donâ€™t even try
Because itâ€™s all your fault, the world has failed you, youâ€™re left to die.

There goes the world, itâ€™s a mean old machine.
Spinning round and round, taking everything.

I judge the world as mostâ€!(???????)
Hasn't this proven the loneliest you've ever seen
Breaking along the common man
So I can smile and shake his hand (So I can smile and shake his hand)
We suffered with the common man? (For them, weâ€™re deceiving)
He used to piss into your sores
We suffered for the conman (To them, weâ€™re the children)
To tear their fucking souls apart.

You think people would talk about this so much more, tell a lie, your evil spell
And when they look back they fall even harder than they did before, they did before
And we all spin a wheel like oh man, oh man
I hope I learn something new now, as they take your baby right through the door.
They stole your baby, thereâ€™s nothing more, nothing more.

It just gets worse nothingâ€™s better I wish I could leave
I cannot trust something I just donâ€™t believe, Itâ€™s not possible
Itâ€™s not whatâ€™s supposed to be, no no no no. I had a much much better plan than that.
I had a much much better plan than that. Itâ€™s not possible, itâ€™s not whatâ€™s supposed to be.
