

Day In Hell

Exilia

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Dear president and plastic wife
I fell wrong and nothings right
I never was a princess
I never had a lucky star No fucking fairy tale life
No more angels, no more chances Gotta fight for my dream
Gotta think about me Ready or not-ready or not-ready or not Its just another day, its just another day
Another day in hell
Its just another day, another motherfucking day
its just another day
Another day in hell Dear president and plastic wife
I see black and you see white I never had no better time
No better place, no better life Dont forget where I come from No destination for my world Its your perfect boomtown
My generation is burning down Ready or not-ready or not-ready or not Its just another day, its just another day
Another day in hell
Its just another day, another motherfucking day
its just another day
Another day in hell I see, I see the pistols now
Hanging low on leather belts
I see cops forming a police line
I hear shots making world headline
Theres a war on what I believe in,
There a source for the pain in my head,
Everyday of my life
They push me right to the edge and they scream Jump, its just another day
Jump, its just another day
Jump, its just another day
(chorus)
