Takin' The Blame

The Virginmarys

Step out of the cross fire
Cause you know its my place,
To take all the bullets and save you from your fall from graceJust like a personal punch bag
For your stiff upper lip
For better for worse I'm your love I'm your curse I'm your freudian slipI'm taking the blame, takin the blame
Takin the shame, out on my name
I've given you time, given you all that is mine
I just can't get enough
When you're beating me blindWrite out your reasons
With a knife to my skin
I'm so easy to please when I'm down on my knees you're a war withinAnd i'm out of control, out of control,
You're burning a hole, burning it all.
I've given you time, given you all that is mine
I just can't get enough
When your beating me blindI'm taking the blame, takin the blame
Takin the shame, out on my name
I've given you time, given you all that is mine girl
I've given you all that is mineOut of control out of control
Your burnin a hole burnin it all
Ive given you time, given you all that is mine
I Just cant get enough.
