He Ain't Gotta Know

Omarion

Nappy Boy
See I got know you got a man ma
But understand he can't do you like I can ma
And all I'm saying is just give the boy a chance ma
To lay you down I'll have you screaming like a fan ma
And yeah, the plan is not to treat you like ho
But your man ain't gotta know
'Cause when it's summer time I can take you to where snow
And when it's winter time I can take you to where it shine
So why settle for ripple when you could be having wine?
I ain't tryna be rude, yeah I know you got a dude
But he ain't gotta know me
See we can kick in the states or switch countries to play it safe
'Cause he ain't gotta know about me
See I can come and put it down when your ain't around
He ain't gotta he ain't gotta he ain't gotta know about me
Nah we ain't the same, I ain't saying he a lame
He ain't gotta know about me
See you ain't gotta leave him
I be that that you call when you need 'em
Yup, and I be there for you when he start to switch on you
Play my role from the sideline like a bench warmer
So sub me in
I ain't your man but we can just pretend
Hit the mall girl, I got enough to spend
And you can go home to him, I ain't hating him
'Cause see you just my little secret like Exscape and them
He can be your man
I'm gon' be the one to take you out for dinner for two
And girl I understand if he start acting up
Then I'll be there to comfort you
Shorty you know what it is
I can spend the night but I gotta be gone by the morning
You ain't gotta talk to me, ain't gotta see
I'm every now and then like an old friend
I ain't tryna be rude, yeah I know you gotta dude
But he ain't gotta know me
See we can kick in the states or switch countries to play it safe
'Cause he ain't gotta know about me

See I can come and put it down when you're ain't around
He ain't gotta, he ain't gotta, he ain't gotta know about me
Nah we ain't the same, I ain't saying he a lame
He ain't gotta know about me
Baby, he ain't gotta know about the necklace
Or waking up early to that Four Seasons breakfast
'Cause that'll screw it up like the homies down in Texas
And tell the truth I ain't the one he tryna mess with
So keep it on the down low or whatever you call it
Before the greatest sex have me trapped in the closet, nah
And like I said before girl look I'm not a hater so if you're in
We can kick it like a soccer player
I can be your friend
And let me be the one to take you out to dinner for two
And girl I understand
And I'll go right up out the back
Ain't gotta worry 'bout him catching you
Shorty you know what it is
That's if I spend the night
But I gotta be gone by the morning
But every time you talk to me you wanna see me
I'm every now and then like an old friend
I ain't tryna be rude, yeah I know you gotta dude
But he ain't gotta know me
See we can kick in the states or switch countries to play it safe
'Cause he ain't gotta know about me
See I can come and put it down when you're ain't around
He ain't gotta he ain't gotta he ain't gotta know about me
Nah we ain't the same, I ain't saying he a lame
He ain't gotta know about me
I'm saying lil mama
He ain't gotta know about nothing we do
You know what I'm saying
He ain't gotta know about the G5 trip
He ain't gotta know about the splurge on the black card
Up in Louis Vuitton and Gucci all that
He ain't gotta know nothing 'bout that
None of that shit know what I'm saying
I'm saying look, I'm like a cold, I come and I go
