

That Kind Of Happy

Emily West

There was a time when love took my breath away
I thought a lack of oxygen meant love was here to stay
Now those butterflies just make my tummy ache
And that flutter in my chest ain't nothing but heartache
That big pink bubble is full of hot air and trouble
And I don't need that kind of happy
The kind that takes you up and brings you down
And I don't need that kind of sunshine
The kind that always shows up with a cloud
I don't need love that leaves ya crying, like I did before
I'm so happy I don't need that kind of happy anymore
There was a time when love swept me off my feet
I never thought Id have to come to grips with gravity
Now falling in love is still the sweet crazy thing to do
But when I take that leap again I'll have a parachute
You cant call it falling when you're on your knees crawling
And I don't need that kind of happy
The kind that takes you up and brings you down
And I don't need that kind of sunshine
The kind that always shows up with a cloud
I don't need love that leaves ya crying, like I did before
I'm so happy I don't need that kind of happy anymore
Just when I thought love might be
Nothing more than a, a bright shinny light
Oh, baby, with every kiss you remind me
Whooooo, I don't need that kind of happy
The kind that takes you up and brings you down
Whoo, hoooo, I don't need that kind of sunshine
The kind that always, always shows up with a cloud
I don't need love that leaves ya crying, like I did before
I'm so happy I don't need that kind of happy
I'm so happy I don't need that kind of happy
I'm so happy I don't need that kind of happy anymore
