

Ad Absurdum

Arcturus

This dead orchestra
play on instruments
strung with the fibres
of my mind And skeletons dance they have no voice
and no complaint But I am still flesh and will not serve
you vampire fools
bringing you life
by invoking dead I'm tired of telling stories with this ghost voice of mine so you can say you don't believe in ghosts You drink me animal wasted on my madness leaving me blank and empty But tonight
I'm Houdini
Gonna kill my shadow penetrate your sanctum See your loss through your eyes
and laugh as two
you not knowing why
and wanting to die
