

It's Not Enough

Dustin Kensrue

Though all the wealth of men was mine to squander
And towers of ivory rose beneath my feet
Were palaces of pleasure mine to wander

The sum of it would leave me incomplete
Though every soul would hold my name in honor
And truest love was always by my side

My praises sung by grateful sons and daughters
My soul would never still be satisfied
It's not enough, it's not enough

I could walk the world forever
Till my shoes were filled with blood

It's not enough, it's not enough
Though I could live for all to lift them higher
Or spend the centuries seeking light within

Though I indulged my every dark desire
Exhausting every avenue of sin
It's not enough, it's not enough

I could walk the world forever
Till my shoes were filled with blood
It's not enough, it's not enough
I could right all wrongs, or ravage

Everything beneath the sun

It's not enough, it's not enough
To make me whole
It's not enough, it never was

Awake my soul

It's not enough, it never was
It's not enough, it's not enough
I could walk the world forever

Till my shoes were filled with blood
It's not enough, it's not enough
I could right all wrongs, or ravage

Everything beneath the sun

It's not enough, it's not enough

Though all would bow to me

Till I could drink my fill of fear and love

It's not enough, it's not enough
