

My Phone

Jodeci

Yesterday was pouring
For straight two months now
How did we do it?
I just don't know how Life's a real big pain without you
You left, you did the same
Cause my love was so true Your friends told me that
You kept up with me
I don't understand
Why we both can't see Why is it this way
When we knew it could be
Could we both just stop
And listen to me? All alone I sit at home, baby
Waiting for the phone to ring
All I know is that I miss you, baby
This loneliness is driving me crazy My phone doesn't ring anymore
No face knocking at my door
Lonely days are here again
I know you feel the same, girlfriend Who was that guy I caught you walking with?
In your smile I knew you wasn't with it
Let's stop awhile and start our love again
It won't take no time for our hearts to mend All alone I sit at home, baby
Waiting for the phone to ring
All I know is that I miss you, baby
This loneliness is driving me crazy My phone doesn't ring anymore
No face knocking at my door
Lonely days are here again
I know you feel the same, girlfriend My phone doesn't ring anymore
No face knocking at my door
Lonely days are here again
I know you feel the same, girlfriend I wanna tell you why I'm lonely
I'm so lonely without you
Don't know what I'm about do
Oh girl, I guess I've got to take you back now Driving me crazy, baby
Crazy, loneliness is driving me crazy
Loneliness is driving me crazy
I don't know what to tell you My phone doesn't ring anymore
No face knocking at my door
Lonely days are here again
I know you feel the same, girlfriend You don't come around

You don't call me no more, baby
This loneliness is driving me crazy You don't come around
You don't call me no more, baby
This loneliness is driving me crazy My phone doesn't ring anymore
No face knocking at my door
Lonely days are here again
I know you feel the same, girlfriend My phone doesn't ring anymore
Ring anymore, baby
