Love Has Passed Me By

Kyuss

Do I look blind, or deaf, well, or dumb to you?
Don't you see burning pictures on my face?
It didn't take long to figure out what's wrong with you
Fuck off, well, I'll put you in your placeCould it be that love has passed me by?
And could it be you're just a thorn in my side?
And all I see is that you're walking away from me
And all I know is that you'll never change meThis hate in me, well, it's burning in my veins
I'm gonna take it out on you, well and make you feel my pain, yeah
Cold caresses, well, as you walk away
Baby, things aren't supposed to be that way, no, noCould it be that love has passed me by?
And could it be you're just a thorn in my side?
And all I see is that you're walking away from me
And all I know is that you'll neverDo I look blind, or deaf, well, or dumb to you?
Don't you see burning pictures on my face?
It didn't take long to figure out what's wrong with you
Fuck off, well, I'll put you in your place
