Kiss Me Good-bye

Doro Pesch

You carry on your lips a lie and kiss me with it's sadness the lie is that you'll say good-bye that nothing ever matteredPlease don't say that I lost all the things you once loved all the things I once had turned to shadow and sand Please don't say that it's wrong that your love can't go on please don't kiss me good-bye please don't let our love dieYou can say you don't believe in love you say it isn't true that you won't look me in the eyes after what I did to youPlease don't say that I lost all the things you once loved
thinking love's just a lie
please don't let our love diePlease don't say that I lost all the things you once loved
turned to shadows and sand
that your love's through and gone please don't kiss me good-bye please don't let our love die
