

Ascension

Three Years Hollow

I want to touch you without a reason
You never take me unless I try
Our lie is over before it's begun
You know we both would die, it's suicide[chorus]
Now i know i've been walking down the wrong road
But I will survive
I'm slowly fading away from the only place
I survive this allAnother step in the wrong direction
Another taken too far, decide
How much longer can you fight temptation?
Is it enough to try, enough to take sides?[chorus]I can take away your pain
Slowly open your eyes one last time
Can you show me how you make
The things in your life hold on
For nothing at all[chorus variant]
