

Alimony

The Bar and Grill Singers

Alimony...Send a payment to me
Alimony, how we love it
How we've waited such a long, long while
For a law that lets us live a little longer in style

Alimony how he hates it
How his second wife will hate it too
It's the price he has to pay for telling me
that we're through

We were married and I thought we would be
The perfect man and wife our whole entire life
But his mistress wanted him more than me
And now he has to pay for three years to the day

Some alimony, I deserve it and he deserves to pay it too
It's the price he has to pay for telling me
that we're through

We were married and I thought we would be
The perfect man and wife our whole entire life
But his mistress wanted him more than me
And now he has to pay for three years to the day

Some alimony, I deserve it and he deserves
to pay it too
It's the price he has to pay for telling me
that we're through

Alimony, send a payment to me

Lyrics Submitted by Gregory B Acedo

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>