Fashion

The Lovemakers

That's a nice shirt you're wearing
Oooh and look at those shoes
You're dressed like you don't have a worry at all
(Why thank you)
Just look at those pants
How much did they cost?
Girl, you've got nothing to worry about
(I know)
Just where are you going?
Ooh lookin' like that
You must be breaking some kinda law

[Chorus]
You're a slave to fashion
And everyone knows
You're lookin' good from your head to your toe

Where did you get your hair done?
And where do you shop?
Paris ain't one of your subway stops
Is that bag a Versace?
Or a Louis Vuitton?
I just can't seem to keep up at all
(Oh please)
All I'm tryin' to say here
Is girl you're lookin' good
I can't believe we're standing in the same room

[Chorus]
