Chasing

Ratcat

(S.DAY)
I never seem to ever really get it right,
chasing after you.
I always seem to somehow get it wrong,
chasing after you.
My foots in my mouth,
everytime I open it up to speak.
My throats in a knot,
everytime I have something to say,
{hey hey hey}
It doesn't really matter anyway.
I never seem to ever really get it right,
chasing after you.
I always seem to somehow get it wrong,
chasing after you.
Walk on by..... (*4)
I go weak at the knees,
everytime I think how I'd like to please.
I find my toungue tied.
everytime I open my mouth to say.
{hey hey hey}
It doesn't really matter anyway.
I believe in dreams and I'm dreaming of you.
ar its true!
Maybee I am crazy, some dreams do come true.
I know they do!
Everytime I see you, I lose all control of my feelings.
How do I tell you how I feel inside ?
as you walk on by.
I never seem to ever really get it right,
chasing after you.
I always seem to somehow get it wrong,
chasing after you.
