New Tokyo Is Calling (Album Version)

The Stereo

don't run away, so inclined to take the easy way don't cause a scene, don't decide you are through you're not so tough, things are rough, find a better way something gets a hold of me when my head gets inside of you call you, this is for you i will see you from a new view new tokyo is calling you you've got a way that distracts me from my everyday not much to say, on our way, so let us through we're not afraid of the harmful things that you might say you might be right, we might be wrong be strong, get ready to... we're not giving up even after heavy casulties things are looking up songs are catching like it's some disease your invention of some cruelty... oh please
