

Black Sunday

Cold

I can't breath at all
It hurts to think
That time could heal my wounds
Feeling I've been betrayed, Black Sunday
Still burns you in my thoughts I can't sleep at all
Now you're gone away
I can't fake this anymore
Guess I could blame it all on God's game
Or explain what my life's for Caught in a winter's rain
'Cause I can't remember the words you said
Take away my fear, please hold on to me
I'm falling, falling I would trade it all
For another day
Just to feel you and your warmth
But even pictures fade, Black Sunday
Still burns you in my thoughts I can't see at all
Did you fly away?
Did the stars shine bright for you?
Guess I could blame it all on God's game
It was fate that carried you Caught in a winter's rain
'Cause I can't remember the words you said
Take away my fear, please hold on to me
I'm falling, falling You always take away
Take away
Take away
Take away Caught in a winter's rain
'Cause I can't remember the words you said
Take away my fear, please hold on to me
I'm falling I'm caught in a winter's rain
'Cause I can't remember the words you said
Take away my fear, please hold on to me
I'm falling And I'm falling
And I'm falling
And I'm falling
And I'm falling
And I'm falling

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>