Sempiternal Pandemonium

Incantation

[Lyrics by Robert Yench, Music by John McEntee and Robert Yench]Seraphim immersed in scorn
Perceptions decrepit, eclipses blind faith
Sagacity with misery itself entwines
And the roots of blasphemous deception stem from their mindsIndulging in temptation and sin, they were cast down
Into regions of sorrow, the deep tract of HellTransformed into devils, for they would not revere
Beguiled, curse their miserable fallThe liberty of Perdition
Spiritual descantification
Inverted redemption
Sempiternal PandemoniumThrown into the utter deep darkness of Chaos
Their baleful eyes cast contempt upon HeavenEternal light now immortal dark
Rise again hierarchy of imfamy, your black wings ascend the skies
