All That I Need

Electronic

You're all that I need
You remind me of me
You've come from my soul
You're part of my treeI don't know what I'm saying
'Cuz I'm so out of touch
I don't mind if we stay in
'Cuz I love you so muchAnd they got it all wrong
'Cuz they don't understand
They're just words in this song
And it comes from my headAnd I find myself flying
At the edge of the world
And we both need each other
Like a boy needs a girl
And they got it all wrongWhat does it cost
To shut your mouth
Let's pack our bags
And we'll both head southI'm feeling strange
I've lost my sight
You're out of range
But it's alrightI'm so busy praying
I was down on my knees
I didn't know what I was saying
I just wanted to pleaseI was thrown out of jail
For behaving too well
I was given my freedom
I was robbed of my reasonThey got it all wrong, oh
They got it all wrong, oh
They got it all wrong, oh
They got it all wrong, ohWhat does it cost
To shut your mouth
Let's pack our bags
And we'll both head southI'm feeling strange
I've lost my sight
You're out of range
But it's alright
