

Static (Mathieu Koss Remix)

Cazzette

Been drifting
A thousand miles an hour into hope
We're missing
Every ounce of power that we owned
When there's nothing left to say
We'll run
Chasing every breath away Oh
Didn't mean for this to break Or come undone
I know
Everything was built to fall
But we would fall together
I know
We said that we could change so easily But we're not moving
Yeah we've been here before
Who are we fooling
What are we waiting for
'Cause we're not moving
Yeah we've been here before
Who are we fooling
What are we waiting for The silence
The only truth that I've been drowning out
Done with hiding
Every inch of you I'm good without My instincts have left me bare
For too long
So naive to think it was there
I was wrong
Diving in too deep to care
Oh oh
I know
Everything was built to fall
But we would fall together, I know
We said that we could change so easily
I don't
Don't believe in our love no more
I thought we could be better I know
We said that we could change so easily But we're not moving
Yeah we've been here before
Who are we fooling
What are we waiting for

'Cause we're not moving
Yeah we've been here before
Who are we fooling
What are we waiting for What are we waiting for
Yeah we've been here before
