

A Day Like Today

Bic Runga

Lala lala-la
Lala lala-la
Lala lala-laLala lala-la
Lala lala-la
Lala lala-laThere's nothing like a cool autumn breeze
Sending the past up with the leaves
Watching all the clothes on the line
In a sidestepping dance
With the neighboring treesLala lala-la
Lala lala-la
Lala lala-laThere's nothing like an echoing hole
A head rush of sky
A knock at the door
A message on your voice mail tonight
The answering machine taking the callsIt's an honest mistake
Falling in love
At any given time
We could get carried away
It could've happen to anyoneOn a day like today
A day like today
On a day like today
Day like todayDay like today
On a day like today
A day like todayThere's nothing like a cool autumn breeze
Sending the past up with the leaves
Watching all the clothes on the line
In a sidestepping dance
With the neighboring treesIt's an honest mistake
Falling in love
At any given time
We could get carried away
On a day like today
Day like todayDay like today
On a day like today
A day like today
