

The End of Now (feat. Leine)

Happy Camper

Well, you know that you'd do anything
To win my heart and become king
And make me become yours again
To be your queen and rule the land You'll climb the ladder to my window
We'd fight the dragon, break the riddle, but
Please let me be understood
I never asked to be rescued Go on, chase your demons
Go find peace of mind
You know you gotta do, what you gotta do
Let me come along with you
Go on, face your demons
Go find peace of mind
You know you gotta do, what you gotta do
Let me run away with you We'd hunt the witch, put a spell
You'd have her head and all be well
But please let me be crystal clear
You had me all this time, my dear Let us travel round the world
And find adventures to be told
As we seek shelter from the cold around the campfire Oh now, go on, chase your demons
Go find peace of mind
You know you gotta do, what you gotta do
Let me come along with you
Go on, face your demons
Go find peace of mind
You know you gotta do, what you gotta do
Let me run away with you Ooh, that's my simple vow: I'll love you till the end of now Go on, chase your demons
Go on, go on, chase your demons
