About a Kid

Rustic Overtones

(D. Gutter)
I swear I could be good for you if I ever get the chance to.
I never win, you never get it I put up with this shit but I don't have to They can't get one more try for pigtails and barbie doll eyes boy you just can't tow the line pride so low and expectations so high life is a sucker punch packed beneath a smile
-chorus-
It's so hard to see love through this front I'm beginning to find wine is thicker than blood you don't see things straight when you're drunk i'm beginning to find some damage done love without life beats a life without love
-chorus-
