

Till the End of Time

DeVotchKa

Theyre just words, they aint worth nothing
Cloud your head and push your buttons
And watch how they just disappear
When were far away from here And everybody knows where this is heading
Forgive me for forgetting
Our hearts irrevocably combined
Star-crossed souls slow dancing
Retreating and advancing
Across the sky until the end of time Oh who put all those cares inside your head
You cant live your life on your deathbed
And its been such a lovely day
Lets not let it end this way And everybody knows where this is heading
Forgive me for forgetting
Our hearts irrevocably combined
Star-crossed souls slow dancing
Retreating and advancing
Across the sky until the end of time Like sisters and brothers we lean on each other
Like sweethearts carved on a headstone
Oh why even bother, itll be here tomorrow
Its not worth it sleeping alone And look at you and me still here together
There is no one knows you better
And weve come such a long long way
Lets put it off for one more day And everybody knows where this is heading
Forgive me for forgetting
Our hearts irrevocably combined
Star-crossed souls slow dancing
Retreating and advancing
Across the sky until the end of time
