Don't Stop The Madness

Tenth Avenue North

There's a beggar down inside of me
Standing on the corner of Your street and my shame is my only company can use some cash but can't admit my need
For what you got and what I could receive
I need your love to come and break the silence.
And don't stop the madness, don't stop the chaos
Don't stop the pain surrounding me
Don't be afraid Lord to break me heart, just bring me down to my knees, yeah.
All I hear is what they're selling me, that God is love He isn't suffering.
And what you needs a little faith and prosperity

But oh my God I know there's more than this, if you promised pain it can't be meaningless.
So make me poor if that's the price for freedom.
And don't stop the madness, don't stop the chaos
Don't stop the pain surrounding me
Don't be afraid Lord to break me heart, if it brings me down to my knees, yeah.
And a marriage loss, and a cry in the dark.
Don't stop with your love, and a mothers tear for a child who starves. And were breaking down, we're falling apart. And with new eyes to see this is your mercy. Don't stop the love.
And don't stop the madness, don't stop the chaos
Don't stop the pain inside of me
Do whatever it takes to give me your heart and bring me down to my knees Lord. Don't stop, Don't stop..
Just bring me down to my knees Lord.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/