Illusion

Spoken

(Verse)
Welcome to fine light when it comes to the fight
Tell you when we're no longer revived
Dripping in the way correct you stay
When you went so low expect the grayWon't give in to you
Won't give in to you(Pre-Chorus)
Because of this illusion
There is nothing left to say
Burning off your memories
Hope is fading away
Surrender all your faith
Surrender all your dreams
And forget the pain of yesterday(Chorus)
Into the night, into the flame
Out of the ashes where healing begins
Into the heart, into the world
That is where all our healing begins(Bridge)
One day you'll bring your lies
And life then pass you by
Wake up and bring your lies
And life then pass you byWon't give in to you
Won't give in to you(Pre-Chorus)
Because of this illusion
Burning off your memories
Hope is fading away
Surrender all your faith
Surrender all your dreams
And forget the pain of yesterday(Chorus) x2
Into the night, into the flame
Out of the ashes where healing begins
Into the heart, into the world
That is where all our healing begins
