

Into Tomorrow

Winslow

Its in your eyes
Its when we laugh but still cry and somehow survive
 Its in the way you need me
The way I can be so real the first time
 It's in the happy moments
 The times when I know
 This love won't
 And we could last into tomorrow
Right through the sorrow we feel when we cry
 And we could last right through impossible
 Into the place we call home
I believe if we try with God on our side
 This love would last a lifetime
