

This Fine Social Scene

Zero 7

Blossom lipped ladies and men with a gleam in their eyes

Fat happy babies sit on their born thin mother's thighs

Picture a vow

Picture well

I couldn't see the cracks in this fine social scene

I couldn't find the fault with this whole pantomime

All others laughing the jokes by the host

He's no man

All others dancing in couples to these session bands

Wearing smiles

Hot colt 45s

I couldn't see the cracks in this fine social scene

I couldn't find the fault with this whole pantomime
