

Born to Lie

Mesh

You're a bitch
You're a queen
You behave!
Indestructible

Black heart
So smart
Play the part
You get the best of them

You're strange
Can't change
Next page
So excitable

Your heart
In charge
In bed
So invite-able

Why is it that you were born to lie?
It's a game to you
Why is it that you're just borderline?
Insane
It's true

You pull 'em in
(hey)
You kick 'em out
You leave a trail of destruction around

Why is it that you were born to lie?
Just a game to you

Your'e mad
So bad
You run
With the best of them

Your kind

So refined
They're blind
Make the most of them

It's a game
(like chess)
Like fame
(love's best)
It's a skill
(cheap thrill)
Always watching you

You tease
You please
They sieze
They hold the flame to you

Why is it that you were born to lie?
It's a game to you
Why is it that you're just borderline?
Insane
It's true

You pull 'em in
(hey)
You kick 'em out
You leave a trail of destruction around

Why is it that you were born to lie?
Just a game to you

You can't be told
What can't be said
The road to loneliness is knowing when to go to bed

You can't be told
What can't be said
The road to loneliness is knowing when to go to bed

You can't be told
What can't be said
The road to loneliness is knowing when to go to bed

You can't be told
What can't be said

The road to loneliness is knowing when to go to bed

Why is it that you were born to lie?
It's a game to you
Why is it that you're just borderline?
Insane
It's true

You pull 'em in
(hey)
You kick 'em out
You leave a trail of destruction around

Why is it that you were born to lie?
Just a game to you

Why is it that?
(hey)
Why is it that?
(hey)
Why is it that?
(hey)
Why is it that you were born to lie?
