

Judge You

Young L3x

She wanna get so, so high and never come down
Smoke weed, pop pills, zip drinks and never come down
She smoking, she mix it like its potion yea she hopeless
She spending all her tokens, I guess thatâ€™s just the motion
    She wanna run, so she get high
    She get high just to get by
    Girl I can see that pain in your eyes
    Girl them scars on your veins donâ€™t lie
    Girl that smoke in the air wonâ€™t hide
    All your pain and all your sorrow
    Girl this lifestyle that you follow
Will make sure you ain't here tomorrow

(Chorus)

    These lights all over you
    You keep showing me your moves
    You keep dancing on that pole
    You keep getting all that dough
    I wonâ€™t judge you
Thereâ€™s a reason why you doing what you do
    Wonâ€™t judge you
Thereâ€™s a reason why you doing what you do

    Lights all over you
    You keep showing me your moves
    You keep dancing on that pole
    You keep getting all that dough

(Verse Two)

We rolling, smoking, yea she pop that booty
Cus she bad as shit, yea she give it to me
Come in here girl letâ€™s make this movie
    I got drugs so she gon use me
    Take this hit, sip this drink
    Tell me girl do you like it pink?
    I see that shit around the sink
    See how your eyes can barely blink
    Girl whens the last time you felt yourself?
Whens the last time you tried to help yourself?

Whens the last time you felt alive?
Whens the last time you ain't get high

(Chorus)

These lights all over you
You keep showing me your moves
You keep dancing on that pole
You keep getting all that dough
I wonâ€™t judge you
Thereâ€™s a reason why you doing what you do
Wonâ€™t judge you
Thereâ€™s a reason why you doing what you do

Lights all over you
You keep showing me your moves
You keep dancing on that pole
You keep getting all that dough
I wonâ€™t judge you
Thereâ€™s a reason why you doing what you do
Wonâ€™t judge you
Thereâ€™s a reason why you doing what you do

These lights all over you
You keep showing me your moves
You keep dancing on that pole
You keep getting all that dough
I wonâ€™t judge you
Thereâ€™s a reason why you doing what you do
Wonâ€™t judge you
Thereâ€™s a reason why you doing what you do
