

You're Gone (Single Mix)

Marillion

You're gone as suddenly as you came to me Like nightfall followed dawn without a day between You're gone and suddenly I can't see
I'm in the shadow of you
I'm in the shadow of you I can see you in my mind's rose-tinted eye..
Somewhere you're drifting by Your heels rolling sparks on the lucky street While here am I left behind Stunned and blind
But I can see you from here
I can see you so clear You are the light
you are the light
You have the day
I have the night
But we have the early hours together you're gone, and heaven cries
A thunderstorm breaks from the northern sky chasing you back to the daily grind You're gone and where am I?
A haunted life
The ghost of your laughter
The half empty glass
The half empty glass And I wait till midnight tolls
Two souls almost touching in the dark
I'll be alright You are the light
You are the light
You have the day I have the night
But we have the early hours
We have the early hours
We have the early hours together Written by: Marillion, Julia Meyer
