

You Belong

Hercules and Love Affair

The lights they call me
Call me to your side
The lights they blind me
They take my sight Will you restore me?
Grace my senses again?
The lights they blind me
Soon he descends You belong to him tonight
There is nothing I can do
You belong to him tonight
There is nothing I can do With words unspoken
The truth is revealed
Gates fly open
Your chance to be healed How he adores you
Will I be with you my friend?
The lights they blind me
Soon he descends You belong to him tonight
There is nothing I can do
You belong to him tonight
There is nothing I can do You belong to him tonight
You belong
There is nothing I can do
You belong
You belong to him tonight
You belong to him tonight
There is nothing I can do
You belong
You belong to him tonight
There is nothing I can do You belong to him tonight
You belong
You belong
You belong
You belong
You belong
You belong...
You belong to him tonight
You belong
You belong
You belong
You belong

You belong
You belong...
