Victim of a Foolish Heart

Joss Stone

Your scars were still showing
When I first met you baby
From all the wrong she had done to you
Then I came along and applied a little lovin'
Slowly but surely I brought you throughNow she's back to rekindle that old flame
She's got a different angle baby
But she's playing the same old gameBaby don't be a victim of a foolish heart
Don't let her lies get next to you
She's just tryin' to tear us apart

She's tryin' to make me her victim tooNow I know she comes around here every time I leave (Look out baby)

Because she knows she's still on your mindEven a wise man jumps in misery somewhere down the line (Listen Baby)

But only a fool would jump the second timeOur affair is growing stronger everyday Don't let her come and steal our happiness awayBaby don't be a victim of a foolish heart

Don't let her lies get next to you
She's just tryin' to tear us apart
She's tryin' to make me her victim tooBaby don't be a victim of a foolish heart
Don't let her lies get next to you
She's just tryin' to tear us apart
She's tryin' to make me her victim too
