Raised Fist

Will this go down in history, Will this end up in misery
We're moving out with endless doubts take your chance now.

Will this go down in history, Will this end up in misery
We're moving out with endless doubts take your chance now. Inconstant powers, Inconstant peace
All this is shaping your face nothing but false grace.

All I see is an image of me an evil filter on me
With endless doubts i'm moving out take your chance now.

All I see is an image of me an evil filter on me
With endless doubts i'm moving out take your chance now. Unpredictable aspects, Unpredictable assets
All this is carrying contempt it's for you and me to prevent. Will this go down in history or will this end in misery.

Let's move out with endless doubts take a chance now.
