

Fog

From Indian Lakes

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Who do you want to be now that they're gone?
You can't help but feel a little bit left out of it.
But if the others can't see that you're not well,
then to hell with them.
You never needed anyone else. And you sail on alone
in this fog.
But you don't know anyone
at all. Did you try to give away your love?
You can't always get it right the first time.
But if you get up now you can try to survive.
I've been trying to figure it out my whole life. And you sail on alone
in this fog.
But you don't know anyone at all. (x2) And you'll never know anyone now. When you hurt so much and you don't know why.
And you can't seem to find anyone.
But you take your time,
and i won't ask why.
And you don't have to be anyone. And you sail on alone
in this fog.
But you don't know anyone
at all.
