

Favorite Song

Nine Days

What if everything you had was like a castle made of sand?
Why dont you open up your hand and hold on tight?
What if everything was wrong and no one knew your favorite song?
There is no one left to sing along with you tonight Everything is alright, I will see you tonight
Everything you want is in your hands
And I cant help you decide the battles you fight inside
And what hurts you, you don't understand And it feels like there is nothing right
And it's all the same to you anyways What if everything you had was like a castle made of sand?
Why dont you open up your hand and hold on tight?
What if everything was wrong and no one knew your favorite song?
There is no one left to sing along with you tonight The better place you wished for is just outside your front door
Still it never seemed so far away
Summer gave no reward until this day was dreamed for
Wait to feel the sunlight on your face And it feels like there is nothing right
And it's all the same to you anyways What if everything you had was like a castle made of sand?
Why dont you open up your hand and hold on tight?
What if everything was wrong and no one knew your favorite song?
There is no one left to sing along with you tonight You never know what to say, so you run in your hideaway
I see the shadow falling in the summer sun
So, you never know what to say, it doesn't matter anyway
Youll heal inside, youll feel this time And if everything you had was like a castle made of sand
Why dont you open up your heart and hold on tight?
And if everything was wrong, I would sing your favorite song
And you would have to sing along with me tonight Sing along with me tonight, sing along with me tonight
What if everything was wrong and no one knew your favorite song?
